

Special Sale of Boys' Suits

Boys' All-wool $5 Knicker Suits

SOLD REGULARLY AT $6 AND $7

A maker of fine suits for boys was so anxious to secure a share of our business that he has made up for us a special lot of fine all-wool worsteds suits such as he makes to retail at $6 to $7. He made us such a big concession that we can afford to sell the suits at $5, and yet make our regular profit.

Really unusually fine suits, in natty double-breasted styles, knickerbockers cut full and roomy. The materials are all-wool worsteds in up-to-the-minute colors and patterns. Bring your boy down to the store tomorrow and let him try on one of these handsome suits. You will appreciate the saving.

On view in our windows; on sale today.

If every boy wore our orthopedic shoes there wouldn't be any grumpy feet on the rising generation. Formed to fit and yet to help proper growth of the feet. $2.50 and $3.

Rockhill Persona Grata To Russian Government

St. Petersburg, May 5.—The appointment of W. W. Rockhill, ex-representative from New York, to the post of American minister to China, to succeed John W. Riddle as ambassador to Russia, is thoroughly satisfactory to the Russian government. Rockhill has been persona grata to the Russian government for several days ago, and it lost no time in responding to Mr. Riddle, who is retiring to private life, has not yet settled his future plans. He has been approached to accept the chair of international law at a prominent American university, and now has this proposition under consideration.

HUMAN SEISMOGRAPH PREDICTS DIRE DISASTER

Boulder Creek, Cal., May 5.—Maud Lord Drake, who has spiritualistic tendencies and calls herself a human seismograph, predicts that a disaster of dire proportions is imminent somewhere on this continent. She also lays claim to a forewarning of the Slocum disaster, the Collingwood, Ohio, school fire, and the recent series of earthquakes in foreign lands.
